

Feeling Welcome at Nokomis Square

“I truly appreciate the welcome gift basket. Changes in our lives are often difficult. I left a home that had been a part of my life for thirty seven years and that held many memories. I feel truly blessed to have found a new home at Nokomis Square where so many good people have extended a warm welcome to me. There is a wonderful sense of community here.”

Margaret